JUROR QUESTIONNAIRE

Thank you for coming to court as a potential juror.

Please carefully read the instructions on this page and then complete the following questionnaire. Your answers are important to assist counsel and the Court in selecting a jury for this trial. Complete written answers will save the Court, parties, and prospective jurors a great deal of time. If a question asks you to “please explain,” you MUST describe the circumstances, time period, persons involved and their relationship to you, or other details pertaining to your answer. You may not have enough room after the question to provide the best answer. The Court encourages you to use the pages provided at the end of this questionnaire to provide full and complete answers; more detailed answers may avoid further follow-up questions later in the process. Please do not write on the back of any sheet.

It is very important that the answers be yours and yours alone. Please do not discuss the questions with anyone, including other prospective jurors. If you do not know or do not understand a question, please check the “UNSURE” option, where available, and write in the space provided what you do know about the issue or what you think the question may be asking. If no “unsure” option is available, please write “do not understand” or “do not know” next to the question.

You should be aware that your answers to these questions are NOT CONFIDENTIAL, and may be included in the public record or discussed in open court. If in response to ANY of the questions, you do not wish to answer because the issue is too sensitive, personal, or private, please write the word “PRIVATE” in the space after the question and circle the entire question. The Court then may ask you privately about the question if you are called to return.

Remember that there are no “right” or “wrong” answers, only truthful answers. You must sign this questionnaire, and your answers will have the same effect as a statement made under oath to the Court.

PLEASE PRINT LEGIBLY – PLEASE USE ONLY DARK INK

Thank you for your honest and candid answers.

Case Background

On February 20, 2003, a fire ignited inside The Station nightclub in West Warwick, Rhode Island. One hundred individuals died in the fire and many more were injured. Three individuals were originally charged with involuntary manslaughter in connection with the deaths: Jeffrey Derderian and Michael Derderian, the nightclub co-owners, and Daniel Biechele, the band manager who lit the pyrotechnics inside the nightclub.

This is the criminal case against one of the owners of The Station nightclub, Michael Derderian. The Honorable Francis J. Darigan will be presiding over this case in the Kent County courthouse. This case has been widely reported in the national and local media; there is nothing wrong with having heard something about this case. It is important to truthfully and fully answer all of the following questions.

Concluding Questions

98. In a criminal case, the judge instructs the jury about what the law is. Every juror must accept and apply the law as the judge provides it. A juror cannot substitute his or her own concepts or beliefs of what the law is or what the juror thinks the law should be. The juror must apply the law that the judge instructs him/her about. Could you accept this fundamental principle?

NO YES UNSURE

If NO or UNSURE, please explain: _____

99. In a criminal case, jurors must accept the following fundamental principles of law:

1. The Defendant is presumed innocent.
2. The Defendant is presumed innocent unless or until the State proves the charges against the Defendant beyond a reasonable doubt.
3. The State bears the burden of proving the Defendant guilty, and the Defendant does not have to present any evidence in his own defense.
4. The Defendant does not have to testify in his own behalf, and a decision by the Defendant not to testify may not be considered in determining his guilt or innocence.

Could you accept each of these fundamental principles of law?
