

The Family Court of the State of Rhode Island

Roger Williams Building
22 Hayes Street
Providence R. I.

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER 77-6

Effective January 3, 1978, an earnings/expense sheet (F.C.D. 77-2) must be filed with petition for divorce from the bond of marriage, petition for divorce from bed, board and future cohabitation, until the parties become reconciled, miscellaneous petitions filed under 15-5-19 (General Laws of Rhode Island) and all petitions or motions to modify orders for the payment of support in existing decrees.

An earnings/expense sheet shall be filed whenever an answer is being made to the petition or motion.

Clerk's will not accept the papers without the earnings/expense sheet accompanying the petitions or motions.

Any Justice may order that such earnings/expense sheet be placed in a sealed envelope for good cause.

Any Justice may order that such earnings/expense sheet not be filed for good cause.

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER 77-6 (AMENDED)

Effective January 3, 1978, an earnings/expense sheet (F.C.D. 77-2) must be filed with petition for divorce from the bond of marriage, petition for divorce from bed, board and future cohabitation, until the parties become reconciled, miscellaneous petitions filed under 15-5-19 (General Laws of Rhode Island) and all petitions or motions to modify orders for the payment of support in existing decrees.

An earnings/expense sheet shall be filed whenever an answer is being made to the petition or motion.

Clerk's will not accept the papers without the earnings/expense sheet accompanying the petitions or motions.

Any Justice may order that such earnings/expense sheet be placed in a sealed envelope for good cause.

Any Justice may order that such earnings/expense sheet not be filed for good cause.

NOTE: An entry of appearance is equivalent to filing an answer, and, therefore, an earnings/expense sheet shall be filed by all parties opposing the granting of a petition or motion.
