

2-12-79

The appointment of an attorney as a Guardian ad Litem is an important component in the operation of the court. It is expected that attorneys will perform that function with the highest degree of professionalism.

No person appointed as a Guardian ad Litem shall vacate their appointment without approval of the court.

Chief Judge