RE: Domestic Abuse

A.O. #83-6

A plaintiff filing a Complaint for Protection from Abuse will be responsible for indicating on the face of the Complaint whether there are other actions pending between the parties, i.e. divorce, separate maintenance, custody of children or other similar relief.

If such actions are pending, the Family Court folder number(s) of such actions must be cited on the face of the Complaint form.

The Complaint for Protection from Abuse will be merged with such pending matters and attorneys of record must be notified by the plaintiff as to the date of hearing on the Complaint for Protection from Abuse. Such attorneys will be responsible for attending this hearing.
