I, the registrant, understand that:

• My application will always remain active unless I send a WRITTEN notice to cancel.
• It is my responsibility to update the registry IN WRITING if there is a change of name, address, or telephone number.
• The registry is not required to search for a registrant who fails to notify the registry of a change of address.
• I, the adoptee, understand that, subsequent to the notification of a match and, prior to the release of identifying information, I must participate in not less than one hour of consultation designed specifically to assist in addressing the manifest issues that may be expected to transpire in such situations.
• In the event of a verified match and before any identifying information is released, the registry will send written notice to all eligible registrants and adoptive parents, pursuant to 15-7.2-14, that they can file an objection to the release of any identifying information. If objection is filed, a court hearing is required.
• The registry can only release identifying information of the other registrant if there is a match and only non-identifying genetic, social, and medical history if there is no match.

Personally appears the undersigned party, who, duly sworn, deposes and says that, as the registrant in this Voluntary Registration Application, I give authority to the registry to release identifying information related to the other relevant persons who register.
