

Supreme Court

In the Matter of John H. Brown:

No. 2002-368 M.P.

ORDER

The above-noted attorney was suspended from the practice of law on October 3, 1999. On June 21, 2002, he filed a Petition for Reinstatement in accordance with Article III, Rule 16 of the Supreme Court Rules of Disciplinary Procedure. Disciplinary Counsel has conducted an investigation to determine whether there is any evidence that the Petitioner does not presently possess the requisite moral fitness to resume the practice of law, and has submitted his report on the results of that investigation to this Court for review.

On November 14, 2002, the Petitioner appeared before this Court to show cause why his petition should be granted. Having heard the representations of the Petitioner, and having reviewed the report submitted by Disciplinary Counsel, we hereby grant the Petition for Reinstatement subject to the following terms and conditions:

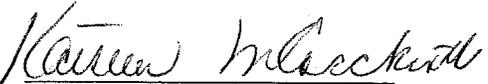

1. The Petitioner must associate with another attorney who will provide structure and support for his practice of law.
2. The Petitioner's law practice must be monitored by Attorney William J. Balkun. Mr. Balkun shall review the Petitioner's cases and submit monthly reports to Disciplinary Counsel regarding the type and status of those matters.
3. The Petitioner shall engage the services of a certified public accountant who shall audit his business and client accounts on a monthly basis, and shall submit the results of those audits to Disciplinary Counsel.
4. The Petitioner shall continue in monitored treatment of his alcohol and substance abuse problems. He shall submit to random and routine alcohol and drug testing on a monthly basis, and reports on the results thereof shall be immediately forwarded to Disciplinary Counsel. The Petitioner shall bear the costs of this testing. Additionally, the Petitioner shall forward to Disciplinary Counsel on a monthly basis a written report from his sponsor in Alcoholic's Anonymous regarding the maintenance of his sobriety.

5. The above-noted conditions shall remain in force and effect for a period of two years from the date of this Order.

Entered as an Order of this Court this 20th Day of November, 2002.

By Order,

Karen Macskott
Clerk
