

Supreme Court

ORDER

Rules 12A (4) and 16(c) of the Rules of Appellate Procedure shall be amended to read as follows:

ARTICLE I. APPELLATE PROCEDURE

Rule 12A. Statement of the case; single justice conferences; hearing panels. --

* * *

(4) Show Cause Supplemental Statements. In cases in which show cause orders are issued, counsel for either party may submit a supplemental statement not exceeding ten pages unless otherwise ordered, together with nine (9) copies thereof. The appellant or other moving party may submit this statement within 20 Days of the issuance of the show cause order; the responding party may file a counter-statement within ten days thereafter. The single justice may vary the time of filing as well as the length of memorandum by special order. No party may submit a further supplemental statement or post-argument memorandum without the prior approval or direction of the court.

Rule 16. Briefs. --

(c) Reply Briefs; Supplemental Briefs and Special Orders. The appellant or other moving party may file a reply brief within five (5) days after the filing of a brief by the appellee or other adverse party. No party may file a supplemental brief or post-argument memorandum without the prior approval or direction of the court. Nothing in this rule shall prevent the making, in any case, of a special order by the court in regard to the time for filing any briefs.

Entered Order of this Court, this 19th day June, 2001.
