

6.00 Judgment

6.02 Entry and Enforcement of Judgment. Once a judgment has been entered, the following District Court forms and writs may be used in a small claims action without the need for adaptation: Writ of Execution and Citation in Supplementary Proceedings; Writ of Execution – Goods, Chattels, and Real Estate; Writ of Execution – Goods, Chattels, and Real Estate to Garnishee/Trustee; Application for Citation in Supplementary Proceedings; Citation in Supplementary Proceedings; Citation to Show Cause for Noncompliance with Court Order; Writ of Body Attachment; Writ of Attachment; Notice and Motion to Attach Wages; Defendant/Debtor’s Objection to Wage Attachment; Notice to Employer; Notice of Attachment (Not for Wages); Defendant/Debtor’s Objection to Notice of Attachment (Not for Wages); Witness Subpoena; and Subpoena Duces Tecum.

In the event of the post-judgment attachment of a bank account, the same notices and right to a hearing that a defendant is accorded in a regular case of the District Court shall apply. The most current version of the forms are located on the Judiciary’s website at www.courts.ri.gov under the heading of Public Resources, Forms.
