Rule 2. Purpose and Construction

These rules are intended to provide for the just determination of every civil traffic violation proceeding and other violations assigned to the court for adjudication pursuant to state law. They shall be construed to secure simplicity in procedure, fairness in administration, and the elimination of unjustifiable expense and delay; they shall also be construed consistent with the fact that they constitute the rules for the adjudication of civil, not criminal, violations of the motor vehicle code and other statutes within the court's jurisdiction, hereinafter referred to as the "law."

Rule 3. The Summons

(a) Content. The summons shall consist of a listing of the civil violations alleged by the issuing officer and a requirement that the defendant appear in court on the date and time and at the place indicated thereon. For the purposes of these rules, the terms “ticket,” “citation,” “eCitation,” and “summons” are synonymous and may be used interchangeably. The content and form of the summons and eCitation shall be prescribed by the chief magistrate of the traffic tribunal, subject to the approval of the Rhode Island Supreme Court.

(b) Signature and Service. The summons shall be signed by the issuing officer alleging that the facts contained therein are true, and served upon the defendant in person or by mailing the summons to the defendant as set forth in Rule 33, which shall be sufficient proof of actual notice in adjudications of civil violations of the motor vehicle code or other applicable statute to justify the entry of a default judgment in all cases where the defendant fails to appear in court on the date and time and at the place indicated thereon.

(c) Mandatory Hearing and Administrative Payments. The issuing officer shall note on the summons whether the violation requires a hearing or is one which may be eligible to be paid administratively pursuant to law. If eligible for administrative payment, the officer shall also note on the summons the full amount of the fine[s] required to be paid.

(d) Notice of Violation. A summons which provides the defendant and the court with adequate notice of the violation being charged shall be sufficient if the violation is charged by using the name given to the violation by statute. The summons shall state for each count the official or customary citation of any statute that the defendant is alleged to have violated. An error or omission in the summons shall not be grounds for a reduction in the fine owed, for dismissal of the charged violation(s), or for reversal of a conviction if the error or omission did not mislead the defendant to his or her prejudice.

(e) Amendment of the Summons. A summons may be amended by leave of court, by written consent of the adverse party, or at hearing; and leave shall be freely given when justice so requires.

Rule 4. Joinder of Violations

Two (2) or more violations may be charged in the same summons in a separate count for each violation if the violations charged are based on the same transaction or occurrence. The number of violations charged on one (1) or more summonses arising out of the same transaction or occurrence shall not affect the eligibility of the summonses to be paid administratively pursuant to Rule 5.

Rule 5. Payment of Summonses

(a) Administrative Payments. Administrative payments are payments pursuant to summonses which are eligible to be made by mail, online for traffic tribunal summonses only, or in person without the defendant having to appear in court. Any fines which may be paid administratively pursuant to law shall be paid to the traffic tribunal or the municipal court no later than seven (7) days before the court hearing date as set forth on the summons.

- (1) Payment in Full. Administrative payments shall be made in full. The fine shall be paid in full to the court no later than seven (7) days before the court hearing date as set forth on the summons to avoid appearing at the court hearing.
- (2) Payment by Mail. If payment is made by mail, it shall be received by the court not later than seven (7) days before the court hearing date as set forth on the summons to avoid appearing at the court hearing.
- (3) Online Payments for Traffic Tribunal Summonses. For traffic tribunal summonses only, online payments are available twenty-four (24) hours a day, seven (7) days a week on the Rhode Island Judiciary's website at www.courts.ri.gov by selecting "Online Payments" on the home page, except when the system is unavailable due to scheduled or other maintenance. Payments made online shall be received by the traffic tribunal no later than seven (7) days before the court hearing date as set forth on the summons to avoid appearing at the court hearing.
- (4) Admission of Guilt. Administrative payment of the summons shall be deemed an admission of guilt to the civil violation(s) charged in the summons.
- (5) Administrative Payment Incorrectly Marked on the Summons. If the issuing officer incorrectly notes on the summons that the offense is eligible to be paid administratively but requires a mandatory hearing, the court shall send a notice to the defendant with a court hearing date.
- (6) Fine Amount Incorrectly Marked on the Summons. If the issuing officer incorrectly notes the fine amount on the summons and the defendant pays the incorrect fine amount, the court shall send a notice to the defendant as to the amount of underpayment and the time frame within which the defendant must pay the balance or appear in court or the amount of overpayment. If the defendant appears in court, the judicial officer shall adjust the fine amount on the summons for the court record.

(b) Payments After a Court Hearing. Payment is due immediately following the disposition of the case. If payment is not made in full, the court may suspend the license and/or registration and set a date for a court hearing.

- (1) Periodic Payments. If, following an adjudication, the court finds that the defendant or judgment debtor is unable to pay the judgment in full, the judicial officer may enter an order fixing the amount, frequency, and manner of periodic payments until the judgment is paid in full. Payment shall be received by the date certain set by the court or the defendant must appear in court, unless otherwise ordered by the court. Periodic payments shall not stay the license and/or registration suspension or other collection efforts.
- (2) Failure to Comply with Periodic Plan by the Judgment Debtor. If a judgment debtor has failed to comply with a periodic payment order, the judgment debtor upon notice in accordance with Rule 22 (d), shall appear before the court at a time and place named and show cause for the judgment debtor's non-compliance. A civil body attachment may be issued in the manner set forth in G.L. 1956 § 8-8.2-3 for a judgment debtor who fails to appear to show cause for non-compliance.

Rule 6. First Appearance

(a) Procedure. Except in cases wherein payment has been made administratively pursuant to Rule 5, all defendants shall appear before a judicial officer (defined as a judge or a magistrate of the court) for the first appearance on the date and time and at the place indicated on the summons. The police department or law enforcement agency which charged the summons shall be represented by a prosecutor or law enforcement officer. Because a defendant is before the court for a civil violation(s), the defendant is not entitled to appointed counsel but has the option to retain private counsel.

The first appearance shall be conducted in open court, recorded, and shall consist of reading the summons to the defendant or stating to the defendant the substance of the charge(s) and calling on the defendant to plead thereto. The judicial officer conducting the first appearance shall notify the defendant of G.L. 1956 § 31-41.1-7 (the "good driving record" statute).

(b) Default and/or Dismissal. If the defendant or the prosecution shall fail to appear, a dismissal or a judgment by default may enter pursuant to Rule 17.

Rule 7. Pleas

(a) A Defendant May Plead "Guilty" or "Not Guilty" or Seek a Dismissal based on a Good Driving Record. The court may refuse to accept a plea of guilty and shall not accept such plea without first addressing the defendant personally and determining that the plea has been made voluntarily and with understanding of the nature of the charge and the judgment to be imposed. If a defendant refuses to plead or if the court refuses to accept a plea of guilty, the court shall enter a plea of not guilty and the case will be placed on the trial calendar. The court shall not enter a judgment upon a plea of guilty unless it is satisfied that there is a factual basis for the plea. Pleas shall be in the form prescribed by this Rule.

(b) Good Driving Record. The defendant may seek a dismissal based on a "good driving record" pursuant to the provisions of G.L. 1956 § 31-41.1-7. If the defendant is eligible, the court shall, except for good cause shown dismiss the matter upon payment of any mandatory costs or fees. To qualify for a dismissal based on a good driving record, an out-of-state defendant shall submit a copy of his or her driving record obtained from his or her registry of motor vehicles or other licensing authority, or other evidence satisfactory to the court.

Rule 8. Pleadings and Motions Before Trial

(a) Defenses and Objections. Any defense or objection which is capable of determination without the trial of the general issues may be raised before trial by motion to dismiss or to grant appropriate relief, as provided in these rules. This includes motions pursuant to Rule 11 entitled "Discovery and Inspection."

(b) Time. The motion shall be made no later than fourteen (14) days after the first appearance, but the court may permit it to be made within a reasonable time thereafter.

(c) Determination. A motion before trial raising defenses or objections shall be determined before trial unless the court orders that it be deferred for determination at the trial of the general issue.

Rule 9. Joinder of Summonses and Parties

The court may order two (2) or more summonses to be tried together if the violations could have been joined in a single summons or in the interests of judicial economy. The court may order two (2) or more defendants to be tried together if they are alleged to have participated in the same transaction or occurrence or series of transactions or occurrences, or in the interests of judicial economy.

Rule 10. Depositions

(a) Refusal Cases. In cases where the defendant has been charged with refusal to submit to a chemical test, the procedure for the taking of depositions set forth in Rules 29 and 30 of the District Court Civil Rules shall apply. All expenses shall be borne by the party noticing and taking the deposition unless upon motion, good cause is shown.

(b) All Other Cases. The court at any time after the filing of the summons may upon motion of a party and good cause shown order that a witness's testimony be taken by deposition. In such cases, the procedure for the taking of depositions as set forth in Rules 29 and 30 of the District Court Civil Rules shall apply with all expenses borne by the moving party.

(c) Filing. Depositions shall not be filed with the court until they are used in the proceeding or the court orders their filing.

Rule 11. Discovery and Inspection

(a) Defendant's Statements. Police reports of examinations and tests and statements showing that the defendant has been advised of the defendant's rights shall be made available to the defendant upon written request; the attorney or prosecuting officer for the state, city, town, or agency shall permit the defendant to inspect and copy or photograph said reports and statements.

(b) Other Books, Papers, Documents, Tangible Objects, or Places. Upon motion of a the defendant, the court may order the attorney for the state or prosecuting officer to permit the defendant to inspect and copy or photograph books, papers, documents, photographs, tangible objects, buildings or places, or copies or portions thereof which are within the possession, custody or control of the state, city, town or agency upon a showing of materiality to the preparation of the defendant's defense and that the request is reasonable.

(c) Discovery by the State. If the court grants relief sought by the defendant under subdivision (b) of this rule, it may, upon motion of the state, city, town, or agency, condition its order by requiring that the defendant permit the state, city, town, or agency, to inspect and copy or photograph scientific or medical reports, books, papers, documents, tangible objects, or copies or portions thereof, which the defendant intends to produce at the trial and which are within the defendant's possession, custody, or control, upon a showing of materiality to the case and that the request is reasonable.

(d) Protective Orders. Upon a sufficient showing, the court may at any time order that the discovery or inspection be denied, restricted or deferred, or make such other order as is appropriate.

(e) Time of Motions. A motion or written request under this rule shall be made only within fourteen (14) days after the first appearance or at such reasonable later time as the court may permit. The motion shall include all relief sought under this rule. A subsequent motion may be made only upon a showing of cause why such motion would be in the interest of justice.

(f) Continuing Duty to Disclose; Failure to Comply; Motion to Compel.

(1) Continuing Duty to Disclose. If, subsequent to compliance with an order issued pursuant to this rule, and prior to or during trial, a party discovers additional material previously requested or ordered which is subject to discovery or inspection under the rule, the party shall promptly notify the other party's attorney, the self-represented litigant, or the court of the existence of the additional material.

(2) Failure to Comply. If at any time during the course of the proceeding it is brought to the attention of the court that a party has failed to comply with this rule, the court may on motion order such party to permit the discovery or inspection of materials not previously disclosed, grant a continuance, or prohibit the party from introducing in evidence the material not disclosed, or it may enter such other order as it deems just under the circumstances.

Rule 12. Subpoena

The subpoena shall state the name of the court and the title of the action, and shall command each person to whom it is directed to attend and give testimony at a time and place therein specified.

(b) For Production of Documentary Evidence and of Objects. A subpoena may also command the person to whom it is directed to produce the books, papers, documents, or tangible things designated therein. The court, on motion made promptly, may quash or modify the subpoena if compliance would be unreasonable or oppressive. The court may direct that books, papers, documents, or objects designated in the subpoena be produced before the court at a time prior to the trial or prior to the time when they are to be offered in evidence and may upon their production permit the books, papers, documents, or objects or portions thereof to be inspected by the parties and their attorneys.

The motion shall be made within a reasonable time, and for reasons (a), (b), and (c) not more than one (1) year after the judgment or order was entered. In no event shall an appeal be heard by the appeals panel without the presentation of a transcript of the testimony of the hearing or trial by the appellant or by the submission of a stipulated statement of proceedings as required by this section.
