Rhode Island Workers' Compensation Educational Conference

November 14-15, 2019

The Providence Biltmore Hotel

Attention: All Those Interested in Rhode Island Workers' Compensation

Please mark your calendar for the 2019 Rhode Island Workers' Compensation Educational Conference, which will take place on November 14-15, 2019, at the historic landmark Providence Biltmore Hotel. The conference program is organized by the Rhode Island Workers' Compensation Court. Attorneys; employers; employees; insurance companies; agents; third party administrators; health care providers; medical, rehabilitation, and human resources professionals; researchers; and anyone with an interest in the Rhode Island workers' compensation system will receive valuable information at this conference.

The program will feature presentations and workshops led by experts from the Rhode Island Workers' Compensation Court and others. The focus of the discussions will be on common questions and significant aspects of workers' compensation in Rhode Island.

Application will be made for continuing education credit for attorneys, insurance producers, rehabilitation providers, and human resources professionals. For other professional disciplines a certificate of completion will be provided.

The conference will include an exhibit hall with various service providers; opportunities for dialogue with senior

Court officials and staff and other Rhode Island workers' compensation professionals; as well as recognition through sponsorships.

Registration for the conference will open next summer. Click here if you would like to receive the conference flyer when registration begins.

Conference Location: The Providence Biltmore Hotel, 11 Dorrance Street, Providence, RI 02903; (401) 421-0700.

Please contact the IWCF at IWCF@bellsouth.net or (386) 677-0041 if you have any questions or we can be of additional assistance. We look forward to seeing you at the conference.
