

2.15. ARGUMENT. -- Argument at the conclusion of the testimony in any hearing may be requested by either party, and if granted, shall be limited at the discretion of the trial judge. When more than one attorney is to be heard on the same side, the time may be divided between them as they may elect. The trial judge may request proposed findings of fact from the parties.