

6.5. IMMUNITY. -- Any person serving as a member of the Medical Advisory Board shall be immune from any civil liability in that capacity so long as that person acts in good faith, without malice, and not for improper personal enrichment.