Information Regarding Court-Issued Identification Cards For Attorneys

Court identification cards may be issued by the Office of Facilities, Operations and Security to Rhode Island attorneys who are in good standing with the Rhode Island Supreme Court.

Requests for a court identification card shall be accompanied by current photo identification (e.g., valid driver's license, U.S. passport, government ID). Any attorney issued a court identification card will be required to sign an acceptance and acknowledgment form agreeing to its terms and limitations. Attorneys who have been suspended, terminated or otherwise are not in good standing will not be issued an identification card. If you have questions about the status of your admission, please contact the Supreme Court Clerk's Office

Court identification cards are issued by the Office of Facilities, Operations and Security on Mondays through Fridays from 9:00 AM to 3:00PM in Room 205 on the Second Floor of the Licht Judicial Complex at the address above.

Lost identification cards must be reported both verbally and in writing immediately to the below address. Issuance of replacement cards are assessed a fee of ten dollars ($10.00) payable by check or money order to "Rhode Island Judiciary."

If you have questions regarding the issuance of court identification cards, you may contact:
