Hearings changed in cocaine seizure case

February 8, 2011: The District Court bail/status conferences scheduled for February 9 for defendants Rodrigo Saucedo and Andrew Rios are reassigned to February 23 by agreement of the Attorney General and the defendants' attorney, Artin Coloian.

The determination of attorney/status conference scheduled for February 9 for defendant Adilson Reyes will be held by video conference. The video conference will be heard at the Garrahy Judicial Complex, Providence, in Courtroom 3E at the Sixth Division District Court, which has the capacity to conduct video conferences with defendants who are at the Adult Correctional Institutions. The defendant will be present by video conference but will not appear at the courthouse.
