YOUR DAY IN COURT

Like the judge and court personnel, all parties play important roles in creating a positive and respectful environment in our courts. While in court, you have the right to be treated with fairness, respect, and dignity by everyone that you encounter. In return, you have an obligation to follow the court rules and to treat all those that you encounter with courtesy and respect.

Some Helpful Information

- Dress appropriately for court. Do not wear hats, T-shirts, halter tops, shorts, or torn jeans. Be certain that your clothing is neat and clean.
- Bring all court notices and necessary paperwork with you to court.
- You need to be on time for court. Failure to appear in a timely manner may result in a warrant for your arrest or other court orders against you.
- Arrive at the courthouse 30 minutes ahead of your scheduled court time. You will need this time to clear security and locate your courtroom.
- Free parking is available at some courthouses but not others, so plan accordingly.
 - Garrahy Judicial Complex: Private lots/garages for a fee and on-street parking – most with meters
 - Licht Judicial Complex: Private lots/garages for a fee and on-street parking – some with meters
 - Noel Judicial Complex: FREE parking
 - McGrath Judicial Complex: FREE parking
 - Murray Judicial Complex: On-street parking with meters
 - Rhode Island Traffic Tribunal: FREE parking

- Be sure to make arrangements for the care of young children.
- Upon entering the courthouse, you will be greeted and screened by the Capitol Police. Be prepared to clear security. Do not bring weapons into the courthouse. You will have to pass through a metal detector. You may be asked to empty your pockets and to remove your belt and/or shoes.
- Do not bring food or drinks into the courthouse.
- Cameras or other recording devices are not allowed in the courthouse without prior permission.
- General information booths are located on the first floor of each courthouse. This is where you can obtain information to assist you in locating your assigned courtroom. Information is also available at the Clerk's Office for each court.
- Turn off all pagers and cell phones upon entering your assigned courtroom.
- Sit and wait quietly in the courtroom until your case is called. Do not talk, chew gum, read a book, or newspaper. Watch and observe.
- Please note that some Family Court hearings are confidential and are closed proceedings. You may be asked to leave the courtroom.
- Address the judge as "Your Honor" or "Judge" and stand when speaking to the judge. Do not approach the judge.
- Your case may not be heard and finished in one day. It may need to be continued or postponed. You may need to return to court on several occasions before your case is concluded.
- Be prepared to pay filing fees if you are filing a petition or a complaint.

- Be prepared to pay court fines when ordered to do so.
- If you do not speak fluent English and need an interpreter, please contact the Office of Court Interpreters by telephone at (401) 222-8710 or via email at interpreterfeedback@courts.ri.gov, prior to your scheduled court date. Court telephone numbers are located on the back of this brochure.
- If you have a disability and are in need of information regarding access to the courthouse, please call the court where your case will be heard prior to your scheduled court date. Court telephone numbers are listed on the back of this brochure.
- If you are in need of a sign language interpreter or assistive listening equipment, please call the court Clerk's Office before your scheduled hearing to make these arrangements.
- If you cannot use the elevator, ask the Capitol Police for directions to the stairway.
- You can obtain more information about state courts on the Judiciary's website at www.courts.ri.gov.

In the Self-help Center in the middle of the web page, you will find a "How Do I?" section. Here you will find guidance on representing yourself, what court employees can do to help you, and what they cannot do. There is a section on frequently asked questions as well as a series of links for help in obtaining legal assistance. There are resources for getting a case expunged from your record, court forms, and how to look up a court rule, state law, or conduct legal research.
