Instructions on how to File a Petition to Reapply for Admission to the Rhode Island Bar

Admission on Examination - Article II, RULES 1 and 2(A)

All bar admission filings must be submitted electronically using the Rhode Island Supreme Court Attorney Portal (RISCAP).

Petitions to Reapply for Admission must be filed by applicants who deferred from the previous bar examination (by the applicable application filing deadline) and applicants who failed a bar examination and want to take the next bar examination (by the filing deadline set by the Board of Bar Examiners included in the results letter).¹

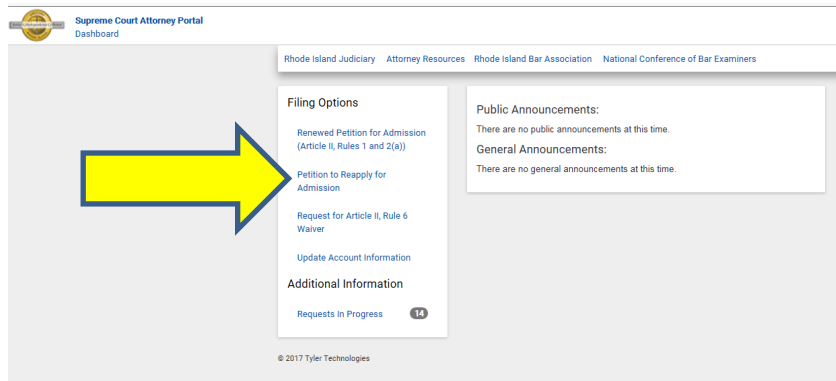

NOTE: Applicants who want to apply for admission after having withdrawn a previous bar application or after their bar application file has closed because of a failure to timely submit a Petition to Reapply for Admission, must submit a Renewed Petition for Admission – not a Petition to Reapply for Admission.

Submit a Petition to Reapply for Admission

1. Login to your RISCAP account

2. Complete the Petition to Reapply for Admission

¹ Applicants are directed to Article II of the Rhode Island Supreme Court Rules and the Board of Bar Examiners Rules of Practice Governing Admission on Examination. Rule 1 applicants should refer to Rule 2(b)(i)(4) regarding submittal of qualifying MPRE scores.
