

Rule 1. General

c. Definitions:

9. Non-public Document. A document which is required to be filed with a court and made available to opposing parties in the case but contains a significant amount of personal identifying information or contains information that is designated as non-public state or federal law, court rule, court order or case law resulting in the document being designated as non-public in its entirety.