

STATE OF RHODE ISLAND AND PROVIDENCE PLANTATIONS

PROVIDENCE, SC.

WORKERS' COMPENSATION COURT
APPELLATE DIVISION

LILLIAN LARKIN)

)

VS.)

W.C.C. 06-08127

)

RHODE ISLAND BLOOD CENTER)

LILLIAN LARKIN)

)

VS.)

W.C.C. 06-02938

)

RHODE ISLAND BLOOD CENTER)

RHODE ISLAND BLOOD CENTER)

)

VS.)

W.C.C. 06-02644

)

LILLIAN LARKIN)

ORDER OF REMAND OF THE APPELLATE DIVISION

These matters came before the Appellate Division on the employer's Motion to Remand for Clarification and/or Correction of Error Arising from Oversight or Omission. Upon recommendation of the settlement conference judge and review of the record, it is hereby

ORDERED:

1. That the employer's motion to remand is hereby granted.
2. That these three (3) consolidated matters are remanded to the trial judge to determine whether the wording of the order in the decree in W.C.C. No. 06-02644 contains a clerical error due to oversight or omission which requires correction, and to make such correction if appropriate.
3. That after addressing the issue raised in the employer's motion to remand, the three (3) matters shall be returned to the Appellate Division for further proceedings regarding the employee's claims of appeal.

Entered as an Order of the Appellate Division of the Workers' Compensation Court on this 8th day of May, 2008.

PER ORDER:

John A. Sabatini, Administrator

ENTER:

Olsson, J.
Appellate Division – Lead Judge

I hereby certify that copies of the within Order of Remand of the Appellate Division were mailed to Berndt W. Anderson, Esq., and Gregory L. Boyer, Esq. on